

kerala CHRONICLE

FRIDAY 26 | SEPTEMBER 2014

cinemaya

Hansika's M'wood debut
a rumour

24 >>

Radhika Vaz is one of the few female stand-up comedians on the scene today. She manages to make even the Malayali audience laugh and set them thinking with her wit!!

Laughing all the way

SERIN SAM
DECCAN CHRONICLE

When Radhika Vaz, first came to Kerala to do her stand-up comedy performance a few years ago, she was cautioned by everyone about how difficult it is to make Malayalis laugh and warned her to be careful with her witty lines. "When I was doing my first ever performance in Kottayam, most people warned me that Malayalis were too conservative, and will not take a joke in the right spirit. Contrary to that, I met a good bunch of audience who laughed and appreciated my jokes. In fact, most of my friends are Malayalis who have always supported me," says Radhika, who is all set to present her new show Older, Angrier, Hairier at JT Pac Kochi on September 28 at 7pm.

"Before my first ever performance in Kerala, people warned me that Malayalis were conservative, and won't take a joke in the right spirit. Contrary to that, I met a good bunch of audience," says Radhika Vaz

TURN TO COVER PAGE 19

